

ade
em

aking into a difficult
e the soft-
r security
outdated
regularly
ad it.
n was in-

oluted re-
county er-
ollections
last fall.
ch could
a - would
e accessi-
having it

itor Lisa
said she
request-
oposals
ar from
nt soft-
companies
haul the

need's
at there a
ne to get
stem re-
she said.

lays

t year
rer Bob
ported
tax col-
s would ort by lion be-
errors in ment. A
s later he
l, saying
ssment
million

data," he

hortfall
-mostly ee said a
liminate
ore user-

the sys-

east two
e report on erty-tax
st room

es prob-
or, even
with un-

Jamille Sou Roberts/The Journal Gazette

Reaffirming vows of love, honor

Marjorie Feedback and her husband, Leon, make their way down the aisle as harpist Michelle Kyrrou plays during a ceremony Saturday afternoon at Georgetowne Place Apartments in which 10 couples renewed their wedding vows. The Feedbacks have been married for 56 years.

the
to s

Violent of restitution

By Sara Eaton
The Journal Gazette

Victims never
They say it over
appearing in court.

Not only do victims
mediate problems a cr
they also must often pected costs. Those c
times soar into the hu
sands of dollars for vi crime.

The remedy - if
caught and convicted
tution.

Yet violent offend
are less likely to pay
non-violent offenders
partly suspended pris
dered to serve some p

Under Indiana law,
do not have authority
ment of restitution af
fenders are released f
some cases decades a Probation officers, wh
authority of the cour collection, however.

For example, as soo
er convicted of murd
from prison, the paro
only strongly recomme restitution. The office

Civil su offer vi

By Sara Eaton
The Journal Gazette

Restitution is not a
hope.

Another option is to suit, which nets a mone without criminal penalt

Some victims do purs
tion, but Allen Superior J R. Scheibenberger said
able whether the victim collect any damages if an not or will not pay rest criminal case.

One factor that works
victim is that eventually c